A Perfect Little Way to Learn French I've been very fortunate to have had the opportunity to visit France twice during my life. I love the language, the people, the culture and of course, the food. In the culture and language, I still find that there is very little you need to know other than what is needed to get by. In a country with 100's of languages, it only makes sense that the language of the countryside is "simple and easy." I found this to be true with French. For those of you that don't already know, my favorite country to visit is France. It's not because of the sights or the food (although that's pretty wonderful too). My favorite thing about this country is that the language is so "simple and easy." Here is a short lesson on how to learn French with essential words and phrases. Essential French Words for Travelers Viens, Connaissez-vous la langue française? (Come, do you know French?) - This is how you make yourself understood in the language when you approach a person. Simple enough right? Oui, je comprend (Yes, I understand), ¿pouvez vous parler anglais? (can you speak English?) - This is a simple way of expressing that you want to speak the language of the country where you are visiting. If you say "Parlez-vous anglais" in France, the person will understand that it's in English that you want to speak with them. Mais oui, parlez-vous anglais, oui, je comprend! (But yes, can you speak English? Yes, I understand!) - This is used when the person responding to the word is not sure if it is in English or French. So, if you are answering a question and the person is not
